

We would like to learn about your views on a series of candidates for a state legislature. Each candidate will have a few policy positions and most will have a political party.

As you rate these candidates, please think about how close each one is to the combination of party and policy positions that you would most like to see in a real candidate.

